1959

To Mr. C. K. Buckelew, beloved teacher and friend, and to his wife, Jonnise, for their contribution to both our school and community, this the 1959 Oviedian is sincerely dedicated.

Dedication

A Tribute . . .

"Not trophy nor the bronzed and shining gleam

Of hard won shields, shall spell your worth to us.

But in our lives as counsellor and friend,

As teacher, one to cheer when days are blue,

When eye has failed to mark the luring goal;

As one to spur us on to higher aims

Will we remember you. When pennants fade,

When bronze grows dim and cups have lost their sheen,

In us, your boys and girls, you'll ever find

The living record of your memory."

I, Mary Ann Slayton, do will my ability to play basketball to Marian Fabry, and to Marilyn Mathers I will my soft brown eyes.

I, Joseph Duda, do will my flat-top hair cut to Mr. Cooksey, and my ability to buy my books then find the ones I lost to Mrs. Smith.

I, Paul Smith, do will and bequeath my "Motor Bubble" to Katherine Duda, and my ability to live in two places at once to Kenneth Sparks.

I, Freddie Alford, do will my ability to sing to Clyde Dunklee, and my slim-trim figure to H. R. Spencer.

I, Jimmy Brookshire, do will my ability to play basketball to "Star" Jerry Arndt, and my place as "Stooge" for Mr. Buckelew's Physics class to Walter Teague.

I, Nellie Beasley, do will and bequeath my knowledge of Physics to Marlene Bellhorn, and my ability to scare Katharine to her sister, Josie Mikler.

I, Bunny Jacobs, do will my Spanish speaking ability to Virgil Wilson, and my place on the F.B.I.'s most Wanted Criminal list to Comrade Charles Parker.

I, Freddie Robbins, do will my ability to out-talk Bunny to my brother Bill, and three feet of my stature to Gene Shull.

I, Katharine Mikler, do will and bequeath my loud and boisterous ways to Eleanor Duda, and my ability to drive without a license to my sister Josie.

I, Sandy Chambers, do will my ability to go steady to my sister Rita, and my job as typist to any unfortunate person who gets the job.

I, Jack Briggs, do will my ability to be ready on time to Jerry Ulrey, and to Julie Gore I will my jet black hair.

I, Margaret Arndt, do will my ability to drive a car to Carol Rook, and my Elvis Presley pictures to JoAnne Oliver.

I, Ann Lundy, do will and bequeath my ability to play baseball to Jerry Ulrey, and my quiet ways to Yvonne King.

I, Thomas Masters, do will my curly hair to Coach Mikler, and my extraordinary use of English to Mike Duda.

I, Richard Smithson, do leave my car to Linda Miller, and my ability to make straight A's to Mike Duda who has never made a passing mark.

ACTIVITIES

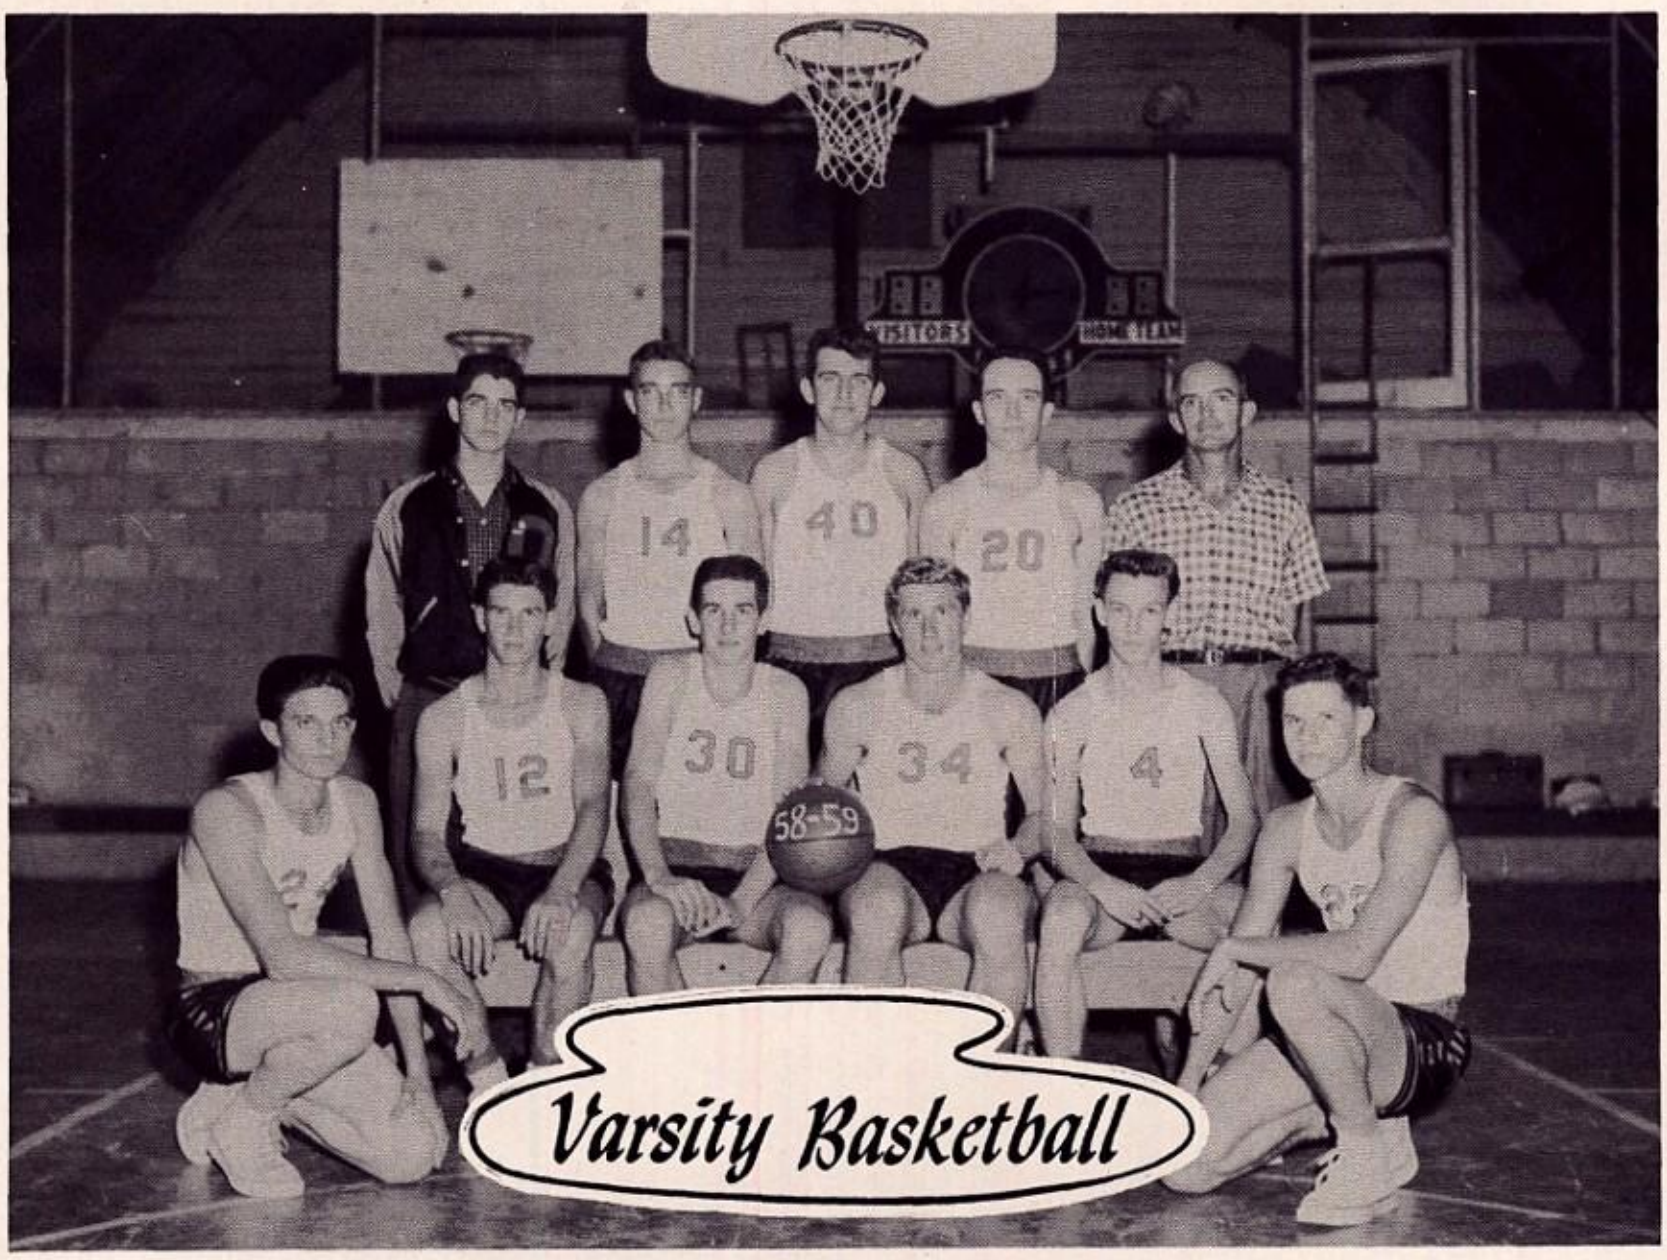
The girls came through with flying colors this year, winning nine and losing none.

Their high team spirit and fine teamwork account for their victories.

Captain Mary Ann Slayton was high point for the season with 212 points. The season is over except for an exhibition game with Bunnell at the boys' district tournament.

Our starting line-up was: Mary Ann, Katherine, Marian, Junie, Sandra and Pat.



Varsity Basketball

The 1959 quintet is one of the most aggressive teams we ever had. Our greatest weakness is lack of height. The tallest man on the team is only six feet tall.

The turning point of the season was our great victory over Titusville. Since that victory the team began playing inspired ball. We upset the highly touted Mt. Dora Bible School twice by unbelievable scores.

The season's climax came when we avenged a 57-52 loss to Sanford by trouncing them 67-54. As we go to press we have two games remaining on our schedule. Our record is now 14-6.

Our top performers are captain Mike Duda at center, Jimmy Brookshire, Johnny Tesinsky and Freddie Alford at forward, Joseph Duda, Wallace Kelsey and Paul Smith at guard. Ronnie Willis, Jack Briggs, Roy Wainwright, and Jerry Arndt make up the rest of our varsity squad.

Our high scorers are Mike Duda and Jimmy Brookshire.

For the first time in our history we have gone to the full court press defense. This style of play has paid off, for our great victory over Sanford may be directly attributed to the press. We hope to use it effectively in the tournaments.

Junior Varsity

OVIEDO — Brook Arnold sunk two free-throws in the final seconds here last night to preserve for the Bishop Moore Hornets a 41-38 high school basketball victory over Oviedo.

The Hornets rallied for 15 points in the final period to top Oviedo after being seven points behind at the end of three quarters.

OVIEDO'S PAUL Smith, who did an excellent job of covering Bishop Moore's high-scoring Jimmy Ellis, fouled out early in the last period and Ellis threw in nine points to pull it out for the visitors.

Six minutes had elapsed on the clock before either team scored. The Hornet's Don Perrine finally hit a field goal and the drought was over.
